

1. What are three challenges that face Michael Oher in the course of the film?

Three challenges that face Michael Oher in the course of the film is getting his grades up, choosing a university to go to, and adjusting to live with the Tuohy family.

2. What is the reason Luanne Tuohy gives for helping Michael?

She wants the best for him and doesn't want him ending up dead or having to deal with so many negative things. She wants to help him become a better person.

3. Where does Michael grow up?

Michael grows up in a poor area, Hartville.

4. Where do the Tuohy's live?

In a rich neighbourhood in Memphis.

5. What are three things that make the Tuohy family a successful one?

Their strengths, their love, and their generosity.

6. What are Michael's strengths that help him to succeed?

Michael's strengths that help him to succeed are that he didn't break the standards that were set for him, he tried his best, listen to what he was told to do, and his protective instincts.

7. What are the weaknesses that Michael has that threaten his success?

Michael's weaknesses that threaten his success are that he is insecure, he backed down easily, and he let people's words get to him.